A student may start driver education when he is 15 years old. The student usually needs to be 15 on the day the permit test is given. Most parents try to complete teen driver education within the first 6 months of the 15th year. The state of Texas now requires that a student must have a permit for 6 months before they can get a license even if they are already 16 or 17 years old. A student must be able to qualify for a VOE form from the attendance office at school which means he has a good attendance record and is passing all subjects. A diploma will take the place of the VOE form if the student is not 18 years old yet.

** YOU CAN SIGN UP FOR A CLASS WITHOUT THE VOE FORM, ALL THE DRIVING SCHOOL REQUIRES IS A GUARANTEE, FROM THE PARENT, THAT THE STUDENT IS PASSING ALL THEIR SUBJECTS AND HAS A GOOD ATTENDANCE RECORD. IF FOR ANY REASON THE HIGH SCHOOL DOES NOT GIVE THE STUDENT A VOE FORM, WHEN THEY APPLY FOR ONE, THEN YOU WILL LOSE THE $50 DEPOSIT AND THE PLACE ON THE COURSE.
